

Bavarian Graduate Program in Economics

Course announcement "Machine Learning"

The Bavarian Graduate Program in Economics (BGPE) invites contributions to the next BGPE course "Machine Learning". The course will take place on August 19 – August 23, 2024 and will be taught by Martin Huber from the University of Fribourg.

Preference will be given to Ph.D. students in Economics from the following Bavarian universities: Augsburg, Bamberg, Bayreuth, Eichstätt-Ingolstadt, Erlangen-Nürnberg, LMU Munich, Passau, Regensburg, TU Munich and Würzburg. The BGPE covers their course fee incl. costs of meals (no drinks), and accommodation in double rooms. The BGPE does not cover any travel expenses. The students are expected to take part in the final exam after the course on September 13, 2024.

Students from other, in particular non-Bavarian, Ph.D. programs can participate if the course is not fully booked and if they pay a fee of 1500 Euro per person in advance. The fee will cover the course itself, cost of meals (no drinks), accommodation in double rooms, and the option to take part in the exam.

After successful participation in the final exam, you will receive a BGPE course certificate.

The application deadline is July 14, 2024. For further information (incl. course description) please check www.bgpe.de. Notices of acceptance are usually sent about 4 weeks before the course.

Please feel free to forward this to anyone who may be interested or to announce the course at your department.
